

Letter from Santa Claus

North Pole 2025

Dear Elena,

You're now eight years old, a big girl living in the beautiful city of Rome, Italy. I've heard about your passion for playing tennis, and I'm so proud of you for helping out at home. It's wonderful to see such kindness and responsibility in someone your age.

I know you've been hoping for a Lego set this Christmas. Well, I've been collaborating with my elves to ensure your wish comes true. Remember, the magic of Christmas is not only in the gifts but also in the love and joy we share with our loved ones.

Keep up the good work, Elena. Continue to spread love and joy wherever you go. I'm eager to see what great things you'll accomplish in the coming year. Merry Christmas!

*With love,
Santa Claus*
